JUROR

Bob Schamerhorn is a professional nature photographer, whose work is regularly published in Virginia Wildlife Magazine and Calendar, along with numerous other nature based publications. His national award winning photography is exhibited at dozens of juried art shows around the mid-Atlantic each year. He studied art and design at Virginia Tech and has worked as an artist ever since.

His work is inspired by an innate passion for the beauty and behaviors of our natural history, especially birds. What is arguably one of the most difficult subject matters in all of photography, is captured to look natural and effortless. Knowledge of the subject, artistic experience, and persistent patience are utilized to produce unique images of nature.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to U.S. residents, 18 years or older. Photographs must be original photographs or photographically derived work, and not done under supervision. All work submitted must be suitably prepared for installation. The curator reserves the right to deny entry if any work is deemed not suitable for display or too difficult to install. Entries must have been completed after January 1, 2016, and not previously exhibited in a Lynchburg juried photography show.

ENTRY FEE

Entry fees are used to offset necessary expenses involved in making the show possible. A non-refundable fee of $35 entitles each artist to submit up to three entries. Make check payable to the Academy Center of the Arts.
